

This set will cover a variety of Northwestern Pacific Passenger cars. This covers several different name board lettering styles. Some name boards have "O"s and "C"s that are more round and some that are more square. Spacing between the letters can be different as well. Be sure to check your prototype to name accordingly. NWP had some cars painted in a later "Overnight" scheme that was used from San Rafael up to Eureka CA until it was discontinued June of 1956. Coach 459 was the only Coach of it's class painted in the Overnight colors.
