

This decal set provides several different lettering styles for the Chicago Great Western cabooses. The maroon scheme had several different incarnations. Originally 2 red stripes with yellow pinstriping to match the F-units, over time, one stripe was removed. Later the maroon scheme was further simplified to no stripes. There are at least 2 round dot delimiter sizes and 2 different sizes of logos for both the early and "Lucky strike" logos. Be sure to consult photos whenever possible.
